

Sinclair Broadcasting is a direct threat to our democracy and damages the reputation of journalism by airing the anti-Kerry documentary in swing states during one of the most important elections of our times without giving the Kerry campaign any airtime to respond.